SCARED BY SMALL POX.

Twenty-seven Cases Reported on Galveston Island—Indignant Citizens.

GALVESTON, Jan. 28.—Since the first case of small pox was discovered, nine others have been stricken down with the disease in the city and one down the island, and in all, at present, there are twenty-seven persons in the quarantine. The cases reported thus far are confined to the colored race, and are mostly located in the west end.

The building designed to be used as a hospital for small pox cases is located in the East End fronting on the bay, closely contiguous to the densely populated portion of the city, and residents thereof held an indignation meeting to-night, and passed a condemnatory resolution on the action of the board of health in deciding to bring the cases into the non-infected portion of the city. They also appointed a committee to wait on the mayor and board of health in the morning to urge them to rescind their actions. If this is not done the citizens declare they will resist the bringing of patients into the building.

The building designated to be used is a portion of the state medical school and a branch of the Texas university, and to use it as a pest house will disrupt and close this school. To-night the building is guarded by the police and citizens, the former to protect it from incendiaries, the latter to prevent any small pox patient from being lodged therein.

Six physicians have been detailed to visit different portions of the city and vaccinate all persons free of charge who desire it. They will start out on their mission to-morrow if virus arrives.

As cases were rapidly increasing and additional guards would be required the board of health ordered that guards be dispensed with and to place only a yellow flag at houses where the disease was.

The spread of the disease is causing much apprehension in the city. A doctor said to-day that there were twenty-five cases in town.

The Samoa Affair.

WASHINGTON, January 28.—In the house to-day Representative Ford offered for reference to the committee on foreign affairs, the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, recent dispatches from Vice-Consul Blacklock, of Apia, Samoa, to the secretary of state, and accounts of which have appeared in the public press, have conveyed the intelligence of great indignities offered by representatives of Germany to American citizens and American interests in Samoa, and

Whereas, in correspondence transmitted by the president to congress on April 2, 1888, touching our rights in Samoa there appears a letter from the secretary of state to the British and German ministers asking permission of their governments to make public joint protocols of Samoa conference held between said secretary and said ministers of 1887, which permission was refused, and

Whereas, it is alleged that the publication of these protocols would show that Germany has violated her treaty, rights and obligations solemnly entered into with the United States,

Resolved, by the house of representatives that the secretary of state be requested to transmit to the house copies of all such protocols and memoranda of the proceedings of said conference, if not incompatible with public interest.

Boone Marlow Killed.

WEATHERFORD, Jan. 28.—A telegram was received here to-day from Henrietta, stating that a party was on the road from that place to Graham with the remains of Boone Marlow, who murdered Sheriff Wallace, of Young county, December 18th, last. It was learned by telephone from Graham late this afternoon that Boone Marlow was killed while resisting arrest last Thursday on Little Hell Creek in the territory by Martin Beavers and John Dickinson. His body was delivered at Graham, and was identified and was turned over to his relatives. The reward of $1,500, offered by the citizens of Young county, was paid over to-day.
It was the escape of Boone Marlow that caused the people of Graham to rise up against his four brothers, held as assassins to the murder and precipitated in a bloody riot. Seven deaths have resulted from the killing of Sheriff Wallace, while some of those wounded in the Graham fight are not out of danger.

For fresh Boston chips, all colors

The cheapest Shoes in the city, are

A Young Man's Sad Suicide.

PARIS, TEX., Jan. 28.—W. A. Hanna committed suicide at the Buckner house in this city at 3 o'clock this afternoon. He came here about eighteen months ago from New Orleans where his mother now lives, and was, for several months secretary of the Paris gas and electric light company.
By his genial manners and social disposition he has won the friendship and regard of everyone. For some time past he has been out of employment, which made him despondent.
He remarked to some friends to-day that there was no use in trying to do anything as no one cared for him.
While the other guests were at dinner he went to his room and wrote a brief note stating whom he wanted for his pall-bearers, sending his love to his mother and asking God to forgive him. He then placed a 44-caliber pistol to his temple and fired, the ball passing entirely through his head, causing death in about forty minutes. After lying the fatal shot he never spoke. The sad affair has caused profound regret. Young Hanna was a member of the Paris light guard and will be buried with military honors. He has a number of relatives here who are wealthy and highly respected. Capt. Wright president of the gas company, for whom he had worked, says he was one of the most honorable, high-toned young men he ever knew. He was about 22 years old and was very fond of society.

The Black Flag.

The old-time drama "The Black Flag," drew a crowded house at Bunnell's Theater last evening. It seems to have lost none of its attractiveness, and the audience applauded Harry Glendon, who suffers for his villainous brother's crime, hissed the villain, and laughed at the funny Hebrew convict, Sim Lazarus. The lockstep march furnished amusement for the boys, and when the final court-room scene restored the convict to his bride and doomed the villain brother to the Portland prison, the applause was quite hearty. All the members of the company play their parts well and big houses will undoubtedly be in order during the week.—Buffalo Express.

Will be at The Garland on the 31st.

Housekeepers buying goods for the holidays will consult their own interest by buying of Chas. East. He has cords of butter, eggs and chickens, fresh and nice, at bottom prices, being the leader in those lines, and has all the fine Christmas grocery goods, besides a brand new stock, bought since the fire. He is making a special drive on fine fancy candies, of which he has the largest and finest stock in the city, at discount prices.

The unprecedented good health of Waco for the past two months is at last accounted for. The people have been buying their meat and lard from Crippen, Fifth and Austin streets.
Good meat makes rich blood, and that is the kind of meat Crippen always sells, rich, juicy steaks and tender roasts.

Mr. D. H. Spencer, the piano and organ dealer of Waco and Central Texas, is expecting in daily from Boston, a specimen Parlor Grand Piano, which when it arrives the public will be notified and invited to call and see. The new piano will be a delight to artists and lovers of music.

Farmers in the country surrounding Waco, recognize the fact that the best flour they get comes from their home mills. Hence QUEEN CITY straight flour from the Waco Roller Mills, is the most popular brand on the market for them. The way our country cousins build up home institutions, is by buying home made goods.

Col. R. B. Parrott has been appointed state agent for the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society, of New York. This company declares the largest dividends of any company reporting to the New York insurance department, consequently gives the largest amount of insurance for the smallest amount of money.

Merchants! Merchants!
First-class merchants will take stock at this season of the year, and all goods not fully up to the standard will consign them to I. C. Meek's Commission and Auction House, 318 Austin street.

Castles & White are live men from away up the creek, and they are paralyzing prices on boots and shoes.

their interest by calling at the Silver side of the public square.
